Promoting Junior Shooting:

In an effort to promote helice to junior shooters, a junior entry fee waiver has been implemented for junior shooters (age 20 and under) during USHA qualifying matches. USHA asks that clubs donate targets to junior shooters on these days. Event flyers will include information for specific matches.

Website Banner Advertising:

Banner advertising is available on the USHA website (www.ushelice.com). The cost to have a banner placed on the website is $500/year. For more information, please use the 'Email' link on the website.

The 2008 World Championships will be in Buenos Aires, Argentina, September 9-14, 2008. The program is available on the USHA website at www.ushelice.com. The Argentinean federation can aid with gun permits (needs to be taken care of ASAP, as this information was requested by June 7. Information is available on the FITASC website or email from the www.ushelice.com website).
